MovieApp

MovieApp is an MVC web application. It was created as a movie site foundation, anyone can use it. The application tries to be simple and free of unnecessary dependencies.

Goals

This site lists the movies and shows the content information of the movies.

It includes text-based and photo-based blog formats.

Easy writing in HTML, MVC or C#

Being able to use the map in an up-to-date manner.

It serves to provide communication to social media accounts.

It can be registered.

It can list the registered ones.

Structure

/home/index Displays the homepage of the movie site.

/home/Index/1 Displays the horror section from the subcategories of the movie site.

/Home/Details/1 Displays the contents of the subcategory.

/home/Index/2 Displays the comedy section, one of the subcategories of the movie site.

/Home/Details/2 Displays the contents of the subcategory.

/home/Index/3 Displays the romantic section of the sub-categories of the movie site.

/Home/Details/3 Displays the contents of the subcategory.

/home/Index/4 Displays the love-fantasy section, one of the subcategories of the movie site.

/Home/Details/4 Displays the contents of the subcategory.

/Home/about Displays the map section of the movie site.

/Home/apply Displays the recording section of the movie site.

/Home/thanks The page that directs those who registered to the film site to view it opens.

/Home/List Lists movie registrations

Although the photos are in the program, they cannot be viewed on the website.

The submit button in the registration section cannot be activated.

Therefore, records cannot be listed.